BAGNO DI ROMAGNA (FC) IT

2-11 August 2016

We are located in the Romagna region where for centuries it shares the Toscana Romagna tradition in the architecture of its houses, palaces, stonebuilt villages, local dialects, works of art that adorn its churches to the roadside shrines that protect the traveller.

Of the 23344 hectares of the territory that forms part of Bagno di Romagna, only 244 hectares are in fact inhabited.

The surrounding countryside is a well preserved area comprising ancient forests, valleys, well tended fields, mountains and lakes.

The traditional welcome is enhanced by the sincere and varied hospitality, to be found in the numerous gastronomic venues, and is a suited addition to what the region offers in the touristic and thermal sector.

On this border stretch of land, Romagna and Toscana, totally agree on culinary matters! They offer a particular gastronomic experience in their trattorie, inns as well as in restaurants, some famous at international level.

DIRECTIONS

Bagno di Romagna, in the Emilia-Romagna Region, is situated on the tosco-romagnolo Apennine, along the E45 which runs from northern Europe to Rome, it is one hour and a half from Bologna and Rimini airports and thirty minutes from Cesena railway station.

Daily bus services with Cesena and Rome.
